

Biography

Cellar twins is a Belgian group founded in 2014. The group is composed of 4 members and friends: Carl Kubinsky on vocals, Jeff Sternon on guitar, Francesco Damanti on drums and Elodie winner on bass.

Cellar twins has created its own style based on several musical influences with bands such as: alter bridge, Smashing Pumpkins, Avenged Sevenfold, Killswitch engage, Dream Theater, or Volbeat.

Whether you are a quiet loving person listening to rock ballads or a metalheads of pure strain, you will find yourself in their universe. Each composition has its own identity, thoughtful texts and harmonies ready to give you chills.

Chronology of the Group:

Formation of the group in 2014 with the two founding members of cellar twins: Francesco Damanti and Jeff Sternon. After 2 years of research, he completes their team with Elodie winner on bass and Carl Kubinsky at lead vocals. Cellar twins made its first concert at the end of 2016 and has not stopped the evolution since.

In 2017, they released their first EP 5 titles. In 2018, they posted 3 clips on YouTube with their songs my shell (official clip), flag of doom, and light of joy. They also took part in the Durbuy Rock Festival springboard, at the Wallonia holiday springboard, where they won the Rock's cool prize. In 2019, the Group continued its ascent with participation in numerous festivals such as the kraken metal festival, the bear Rock Festival, the July Rock Festival, the American Rock Festival. They were chosen to represent the province of Namur for the year 2019 in the national project 5 and were also selected among many Belgian groups to participate in the springboard of Wacken Festival. Cellar twins still offers many surprises by the end of the year 2019, like the release of new video clips and the release of their new album for end 2019 that promises to mark the spirits!